

MOST REVEREND DOUGLAS J. LUCIA
BISHOP OF SYRACUSE

DECREE
ON THE EXTINCTIVE UNION – MERGER OF THE
PARISHES OF SAINT AMBROSE, SAINT ANTHONY, SAINT JOSEPH,
AND OUR LADY OF GOOD COUNSEL, ENDICOTT, NEW YORK

Whereas the parish of Saint Ambrose was established in 1908 and its current church was dedicated in 1909, the parish of Saint Anthony was established in 1915 and its current church was dedicated in 1942, the parish of Saint Joseph was established in 1923 and its current church was dedicated in 1930, and the parish of Our Lady of Good Counsel was established in 1940 and its current church was dedicated in 1941;

Whereas these parishes of Saint Ambrose, Saint Anthony, and Saint Joseph were linked in 2022 under one pastor (can. 526 §1) for the sake of providing proper pastoral care due to changing demographics of the area, limited resources, retirements of pastors, and geographical proximity;

Whereas the parish of Our Lady of Good Counsel was linked with the parish of Our Lady of Sorrows in Vestal, New York in 2022 under one pastor (can. 526 §1) for the sake of providing proper pastoral care due to changing demographics of the area, limited resources, retirements of pastors, and geographical proximity;

Whereas an examination of the condition of each of the parishes took place beginning in 2022, evaluating the sacramental statistics, Mass attendance, finances, vitality of each parish, options for pastoral care, etc., involving the pastors, trustees, finance councils, pastoral councils, committees of volunteers, and parishioners from each parish as well as diocesan officials, resulting in a unanimous recommendation to merge into one parish in order to provide for the pastoral care of the faithful and to better promote their active engagement in the Church's mission of worship, evangelization, and care of those in need, the results of which were made known at Town Hall meetings as well as through parish bulletins, announcements at the end of Mass, etc.;

Whereas, I convoked the Presbyteral Council on 4 March 2026 and presided over it according to the norm of law (cans. 127 §1, 166 §1, and 500 §1), placing the proposed modifications of the parishes of Saint Ambrose, Saint Anthony, Saint Joseph, and Our Lady of Good Counsel on the agenda ahead of time, ensuring that a summary of the status of each individual parish was provided to the members of the Council (can. 50), proposing the merger of each individual parish, seeking the informed and free counsel of the members concerning the proposed modification of each individual parish (can. 515 §2), listening to arguments both for and against the proposed modification of each individual parish, and receiving unanimous support for the proposed modification of each individual parish;

Whereas “It is only for the diocesan bishop to erect, suppress, or alter parishes. He is neither to erect, suppress, nor alter notably parishes, unless he has heard the presbyteral council” (can. 515 §2);

Whereas the parish of Saint Ambrose has experienced a significant decline in Sunday Mass attendance and in the celebration of the sacraments, operates at a yearly financial deficit, and has limited resources;

Whereas the parish of Saint Anthony has experienced a significant decline in Sunday Mass attendance and in the celebration of the sacraments, operates at a yearly financial deficit, and has limited resources;

Whereas the parish of Saint Joseph has experienced a significant decline in Sunday Mass attendance and in the celebration of the sacraments, operates at a significant yearly financial deficit, and has limited resources;

Whereas the parish of Our Lady of Good Counsel has experienced a significant decline in Sunday Mass attendance and in the celebration of the sacraments, operates at a significant yearly financial deficit, and has limited resources;

Whereas the population of Endicott has decreased such that there is no longer a need for or the possibility of sustaining the current number of individual parishes in close proximity to one another, the number of priests available in the Diocese of Syracuse to provide pastoral care has decreased while the average age of those available to serve has increased, the financial resources of each parish are directed primarily to the maintenance of buildings and physical plants as well as to provide for adequate personnel, and that various other options concerning the pastoral care of some of these parishes have been attempted and exhausted;

Therefore, in order to promote the good of souls as well as the good of the diocese, I the undersigned Bishop of Syracuse, have decided as follows:
